Father Jim expressed great concern over the invitation at Harvard University, an institution founded on Christian principles, to do a black mass. Although disguised as intellectual freedom, this is nothing more than an insult to Christians. We as Christians must advocate for truth. We must recognize that it is our duty to make our Christian values and views known.

There is no neutral territory here. Christ's Gospel is a gospel of life and love. Christian faith is about getting to the truth. We have an important place in the world. We cannot allow our Christian conviction and principles to be edged out.

From Cardinal Priest to Sainthood; the Canonization of the Good Pope John XXIII

Material was taken from articles that appeared in the April 18, 2014 edition of "The Colorado Catholic Herald" newspaper of the diocese of Colorado Springs

On April 27, 2014, two former popes were canonized as saints by Pope Francis I. One was Pope John Paul II, and the other was Cardinal Angelo Giuseppe Boncalli, Pope John XXIII. While Pope John Paul II papacy was one of the longest, Pope John's reign was one of the shortest, only 5 years. In addition, Pope John did not have the scholarly intellect or charisma of a Pope John Paul II. Nevertheless, he was an astute observer of the world environment, and attuned to the powerful changes that were taking place around the world. And in response to what he saw unfolding, Pope John had the fortitude and moral courage to call for a second Vatican council. As we examine the historical implications of Vatican II, one could argue that he has become one of the most important and influential papal figures of modern times. As an individual, Pope John XXIII was a person of deep faith based convictions, and was noted as a fun loving jovial man with an incredible sense of humor, who loved anyone of any race, culture and nationality. As pope and pastor, he worried over the decline in the spiritual and apostolic nature of the world and the rise of radical secular thought. From his perspective, it was the world that was broken not the Church, and that a new and revamped Church, therefore, could become the main instrument for bringing hope and guidance to a world that was in desperate need of both. Against opposition and push back, he championed for and got a second Vatican council, no easy feat. One of the keys to its ultimate success was the fact that Vatican II was fomented without any pre-conceived ideas of what it would accomplish. Pope John XXIII opened Vatican II, yet died before it was completed. The task of bringing Vatican II to close was left to his predecessor, Pope Paul VI. Yet like a large rock tossed into a pond, the effects of Vatican II are still rippling out and reverberating through both the Catholic and Religious Communities. In that regard the work of Vatican II is still unfolding and being playing out, and thanks to the visionary acumen one man it will for generations to come.

Knights of Columbus Help Provide Prosthetics to Boston Marathon Bombing Amputees
Funding assists amputees with prosthetic care and upgrades not covered by their insurance

New Haven, Conn. – One year after the Boston marathon bombing, the Knights of Columbus Stand With Boston Program is providing assistance for people who lost limbs in that tragic event.

The latest in a series of Knights' initiatives to help provide mobility for individuals in the United States and worldwide, the Knights' Boston program is designed to cover the cost of additional or higher-quality prosthesis in order to help amputees regain as much mobility as possible.

The Knights has so far donated more than $33,000 to help three people who lost limbs in the bombing. For two of the amputees, the funding has helped pay for costs not covered by their health insurance, supporting upgrades to state-of-the-art military grade X-3 micro-processor knees. In the third case, K of C funding helped pay for a prosthetic running leg that supplements the prosthetic leg that is used by the person for most day-to-day activities.

"Medical coverage often has its limits," said Supreme Knight Carl Anderson, "but we are very happy that we are able to help bridge those limits with this charitable program designed to help those who lost a limb in the bombing recover even greater mobility."

Anderson added: "Following the example of the Good Samaritan, the Knights of Columbus has always sought to help those in need. What happened in Boston was a terrible reminder of the reality of evil in the world, but by responding with care for those who were hurt, we can show that the power of love is stronger than hatred or evil, and that evil does not have the last word."

In implementing the program and reviewing applications, the Knights of Columbus continues to consult with experts in the field of prosthetics and rehabilitation.

The Catholic fraternal organization has a long history of assisting those with mobility issues and has provided more than 40,000 wheelchairs to individuals throughout the United States as well as worldwide, from Latin America to Vietnam.

In the wake of the devastating 2010 earthquake in Haiti, the Knights of Columbus committed $1.5 million in aid and launched the "Healing Haiti's Children" initiative together with several partners that has so far helped hundreds of Haitian children with prosthetic and rehabilitation care.

Cumulative figures show that during the past decade the Knights of Columbus has donated $1.475 billion to charity and provided more than 673 million hours of volunteer service in support of charitable initiatives.

Dear Friends ,

Recently we were invited to be a part of a Women's event hosted by a few churches in town. It was a full day of speakers and worship music, and we were grateful for the time they allowed for us to share about the ministry. I had the opportunity to talk with many women who came by our information table. I was struck by how many had stories that pertained to the mission and purpose of Life Network. One older woman at the conference walked by and, with tears in her eyes, quietly whispered: "Never give up, what you do is so important. I know because I used abortion as birth control for many years... I don't even know how many... but I cling to a God who has told me I am forgiven."

Statistics show that 1 in 3 women will have had an abortion by the age of 45. So often, those who made abortion decisions in their past are some of our greatest encouragers today: "keep doing what you are doing", "you are making a difference" and "I wish you would have been there for many so many years ago..." Through our Bridges of Hope abortion recovery Bible study and monthly "Good Grief" meetings, we hope to continue to reach the thousands in our community who are hurting from their past abortion.

Because of your partnership, are able to stand with those contemplating abortion – showing them the truth about the life growing inside and offering ongoing support. Your support helps us present to students in our community about making good choices for today and for their futures... and it allows us to be a support to those who regret their past decisions and seek healing. Thank you for your gift. You are making a difference!

In Christ,

Laura Howe

Dear Friends:

Please accept my thanks for your generous gift of $1,000.00 to the 2014 Returning God's Gifts Appeal. Through your gift you participate in the mission of the Church in Central Colorado: caring for the poor and suffering, providing education and faith formation to Catholics of all ages, and forming priests and deacons for service to the Church.

Pope Francis recently said: "Goodness always tends to spread. Every authentic experience of truth and goodness seeks by its very nature to grow within us, and any person who has experienced a profound liberation becomes more sensitive to the needs of others" (Evangelii Gaudium, 9). Thank you for your act of goodness in service to the needs of others.

With deep personal gratitude, I remain,

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Michael J. Sheridan
Bishop of Colorado Springs

Worthy State Deputy, Worthy State Chaplain, Worthy Supreme Rep, Worthy State Officers, and my brother knights:

My name is Joe Musso, Grand Knight and seated delegate from Rev. Robert F Houlihan SJ, Council 10937, member number 4297250. It is my privilege and honor to nominate Jonathan Herskovits for the position of State Warden.

Sir Knight Jon Herskovits, insured membership number 4033549, joined the Knights of Columbus in May 2005. Two months later he took his major degrees. He attained the honor of the 4th Degree six months after that.

He graduated from the University of Colorado with a degree in Chemical Engineering and now serves as the President and CEO of Five Star Chemicals & Supply Inc. in Commerce City. He currently lives in Castle Rock with his wife Colleen and three lovely children.

Jon has served many different officer positions within both the assembly and local councils. Brother Herskovits served St. Mark council 1498 as the youth director, Chancellor, Deputy Grand Knight, Grand Knight and Trustee. As Grand Knight, he helped the council achieve the Double Star award. He was also instrumental in forming "The Angel Fund" at St. Mark which has given out more than $25,000 to date to families in need.

In 2010, Brother Herskovits represented the State of Colorado as a Delegate to the Supreme Convention in Washington DC.

In 2011, Jon and his family transferred parishes where he now serves with the Pax Christi Knights. Here he helped form Assembly 3353 in 2012.

Jon served for two years as the State Membership Coordinator, helping the State achieve the Circle of Honor award. He enjoys traveling the state serving on the 1st, 2nd and 3rd Degree exemplification teams. In March 2012, Jon was certified as a Conferring Officer of the 3rd degree.

Last year, Jon was elected as the State Warden and wishes to serve the State of Colorado one more year.

Therefore, it is my honor to nominate my friend Jon Herskovits for State Warden.

I wish to place in to nomination, Council 10937, to host the State Soccer Competition for 2014. We have access to a beautiful field large enough to host the event and our members are excited to serve the state once again.
