GRAND KNIGHT'S MESSAGE

At the August planning meeting, we put together the following list of goals for the 2003-2004 fraternal year:

GOALS

- "100% Participation" – Involve every council member in at least 1 activity.
- Achieve Star Council status.
- Improve the visibility and awareness of the Knights of Columbus in our parishes.
- Improve the quality of the membership.

In order to accomplish these goals, we identified the following actions that need to be taken:

- Have fun and involve families in our activities. As others see us having fun, they will want to participate.
- Assign every new Knight a mentor and make sure that new and recently joined Knights are proactively invited to participate.
- Create a list of council activities and share it with prospective and new Knights so they have a better understanding of what we do.
- Establish good communication habits and channels so that every member and the parishioners are aware of what the Knights are doing and how we contribute to the community and church.
- Use the retention process defined by Supreme to attempt to re-involve delinquent council members.

Some of these actions have specific owners. Others are things that we all can do. If you are reading this, you are probably one of the key contributors in this council. Thanks for your generous contributions of your time.

Please help us achieve the "100% Participation" goal – if you know a Knight whom you haven't seen at an activity for a while, ask them if they get the newsletter each month. Ask them if they (and their family) can help out with the Mentally Handicapped drive. Ask them if they plan to bring their family to the Christmas party in December. With your help, we will achieve all of our goals!

Remember ... the Knights of Columbus is a Catholic Family Fraternal Service Organization.

The Center of the Bible

What is the shortest chapter in the Bible? Answer - Psalms 117

What is the longest chapter in the Bible? Answer - Psalms 119

Which chapter is in the center of the Bible? Answer - Psalms 118

Fact: There are 594 chapters before Psalms 118

Fact: There are 594 chapters after Psalms 118

Add these numbers up and you get 1188

What is the center verse in the Bible? Answer - Psalms 118:8

Does this verse say something significant about God's perfect will for our lives? The next time someone says they would like to find God's perfect will for their lives and that they want to be in the center of His will, just send them to the center of His Word!

Psalms 118:8 - "It is better to trust in the LORD than to put confidence in man."

Now isn't that odd how this worked out, or was God in the center of it?

TOOTSIE ROLL DRIVE

The tootsie roll drive benefiting the mentally handicapped will be held the first 2 weekends of October. Many volunteers will be needed to collect donations at the local stores. A sign-up list will be at the September meeting. Or you can contact Matt Sheffield 303-683-8801.

Faith doesn't get you around trouble, it gets you through it!

WHAT IS THE HALEY FUND? (BY KEITH SEARS)

Our council has a special fund to assist people in our community with uninsured medical expenses that cause a burden to the person or their family. It is funded by the income of five soda vending machines. Three machines are located in an engineering company, two are located at Pax Christi and there is one spare. These machines were donated to the council during our Tootsie Roll Drive of 1998.

A gentleman walked up to a member in his Tootsie Roll apron and started asking about our council. Apparently satisfied with who we were, he made the offer to donate these machines to us. At the next general meeting the council voted to accept the offer and gave the gentleman a letter accepting the machines and acknowledging the value of the donation.

A member, Gene Solome, developed a resolution that created this fund from the vending proceeds and gave it the name of Keith Sears' granddaughter, Haley, who had just passed away that September at 20 months of age from a very rare Leukodystrophy called Krabbes. Krabbes normally affects infants, who are rarely over a year old.

Recommendations for distributions can come from any member who informs the council of a deserving circumstance. There is a board of three that makes a final determination but in all cases the membership at large has always been asked for their discussion and vote.

One recent example was for therapy treatments of an autistic boy. The insurance only allowed a fixed amount of visits for this help. The therapist offered to continue treatment where there was hope for improving the boy's adjustment in his family, at a greatly reduced fee which the Haley Fund covered.

Haley is also remembered at www.krabbes.com. This website is maintained by Haley's father, Gregory Sears, where the pictures, stories and tributes of most of these children and their families are kept along with detailed information on the disease itself. Haley's parents remain very active in 'Hunters Hope,' a foundation which is searching for solutions for what is currently a fatal disease of the very young.

THE SMELL OF RAIN

A cold March wind danced around the dead of night in Dallas as the doctor walked into the small hospital room of Diana Blessing. Still groggy from surgery, her husband David held her hand as they braced themselves for the latest news. That afternoon of March 10, 1991, complications had forced Diana, only 24-weeks pregnant, to undergo an emergency cesarean to deliver the couple's new daughter, Danae Lu Blessing. At 12 inches long and weighing only one pound and nine ounces, they already knew she was perilously premature. Still, the doctor's soft words dropped like bombs. "I don't think she's going to make it", he said, as kindly as he could. "There's only a 10% chance she will live through the night, and even then, if by some slim chance she does make it, her future could be a very cruel one".

Numb with disbelief, David and Diana listened as the doctor described the devastating problems Danae would likely face if she survived. She would never walk, she would never talk, she would probably be blind, and she would certainly be prone to other catastrophic conditions from cerebral palsy to complete mental retardation, and on and on. "No! No!" was all Diana could say. She and David, with their 5-year-old son Dustin, had long dreamed of the day they would have a daughter to become a family of four. Now, within a matter of hours, that dream was slipping away.

Through the dark hours of morning as Danae held onto life by the thinnest thread, Diana slipped in and out of sleep, growing more and more determined that their tiny daughter would live and live to be a healthy, happy young girl. The lightest kiss or caress only intensified her discomfort, so they couldn't even cradle their tiny baby girl against their chests to offer the strength of their love. All they could do, as Danae struggled alone beneath the ultraviolet light in the tangle of tubes and wires, was to pray that God would stay close to their precious little girl. There was never a moment when Danae suddenly grew stronger. But as the weeks went by, she did slowly gain an ounce of weight here and an ounce of strength there. At last, when Danae turned two months old, her parents were able to hold her in their arms for the very first time. And two months later, though doctors continued to gently, but grimly warn that her chances of surviving, much less living any kind of normal life, were next to zero. Danae went home from the hospital, just as her mother had predicted.

Five years later, Danae is a petite but feisty young girl with glittering gray eyes and an unquenchable zest for life. She shows no signs, whatsoever, of any mental or physical impairment. Simply, she is everything a little girl can be and more, but that happy ending is far from the end of her story.

One blistering afternoon in the summer of 1996 near her home in Irving, Texas, Danae was sitting in her mother's lap in the bleachers of a local ballpark where her brother Dustin's baseball team was practicing. As always, Danae was chattering nonstop with her mother and several other adults sitting nearby when she suddenly fell silent. Hugging her arms across her chest, Danae asked, "Do you smell that?" Smelling the air and detecting the approach of a thunderstorm, Diana replied, "Yes, it smells like rain." Danae closed her eyes and again asked, "Do you smell that?" Once again Diana said, rain." Still caught in the moment, Danae shook her head, patted her thin shoulders with her small hands and loudly announced, "No, it smells like Him. It smells like God when you lay your head on His chest."

Tears blurred Diana's eyes as Danae then happily hopped down to play with the other children. Before the rains came, her daughter's words confirmed what Diana and all the members of the extended Blessing family had known, at least in their hearts, all along. During those long days and nights of her first two months of her life, when her nerves were too sensitive for them to touch her, God was holding Danae on His chest and it is His loving scent that she remembers so well.

No wonder EVERYONE LOVES the smell of rain!

THOSE PRECIOUS THINGS CHILDREN SAY!!

The Whale and the Human

A little girl was talking to her teacher about whales. The teacher said it was physically impossible for a whale to swallow a human because even though it was a very large mammal its throat was very small. The little girl stated that Jonah was swallowed by a whale. Irritated, the teacher reiterated that a whale could not swallow a human; it was physically impossible. The little girl said, "When I get to heaven I will ask Jonah." The teacher asked, "What if Jonah went to hell?" The little girl replied, "Then you ask him."

What God Looks Like

A Kindergarten teacher was observing her classroom of children while they drew. She would occasionally walk around to see each child's work. As she got to one little girl who was working diligently, she asked what the drawing was? The girl replied, "I'm drawing God." The teacher paused and said, "But no one knows what God looks like." Without missing a beat, or looking up from her drawing, the girl replied, "They will in a minute."

The 10 Commandments

A Sunday school teacher was discussing the Ten Commandments with her five and six year olds. After explaining the commandment to "honor thy Father and thy Mother," she asked, "Is there a commandment that teaches us how to treat our brothers and sisters?" A boy (the oldest in the family) answered, "Thou shall not kill."

The Kiss

A seven-year-old admitted calmly to her parents that Billy Brown had kissed her after class. "How did that happen?" gasped her mother. "It wasn't easy," admitted the young lady, "but three girls helped me catch him."

The Mystery Behind Grey Hair

One day a little girl was sitting and watching her mother do the dishes at the kitchen sink. She suddenly noticed that her mother had several strands of white hair sticking out in contrast on her brunette head. She looked at her mother and inquisitively asked, "Why are some of your hairs white, Mom?" Her mother replied, Well, every time that you do something wrong and make me cry or unhappy, one of my hairs turns white." The little girl thought about this revelation for a while and then said, "Momma, how come

ALL of grandma's hairs are white?"

Boy and Girl Kittens

A three-year-old went with his dad to see a litter of kittens. On returning home, he breathlessly informed his mother that there were two boy kittens and two girl kittens. "How did you know?" his mother asked. "Daddy picked them up and looked underneath," he replied. "I think it's printed on the bottom."

School Photos

The children had all been photographed, and the teacher was trying to persuade them each to buy a copy of the group picture. "Just think how nice it will be to look at it when you are all grownup and say, "There's Jennifer; she's a lawyer "That's Michael, he's a doctor." A small voice at the back of the room rang out, "And there's the teacher, she's dead."

CHAPLAIN'S MESSAGE

What Happened to Summer?

By Labor Day many question where summertime has gone. With sports and vacations and projects around the house, not to mention a wedding or baptism or birthday to celebrate the days pass quickly. Yet, there is only 24 hours on the clock. We are all able to choose how we spend those hours. A few minutes of planning can go a long way. It is amazing on the Amount of time that can be saved on a good schedule. Try it. And as you plan your day give a priority to the Lord. Since the Lord has given you the entire day why not begin with a prayer of thanks and petition and praise. Starting with the Lord will make all the difference in the world!

Fr. Ken

Knights of Columbus—Family Activity Ideas Dan Lazzeri

Knights of Columbus Family Week is an opportunity for our Order to celebrate the family. Keep in mind that Family Week is not just for Knights, it's also for family members – wives, children, siblings and grandparents. Our celebration should not be a private matter. We should open this up to parishioners, friends, priests and anyone else who would be interested. We want to celebrate families throughout the year. To strengthen our Brotherhood, our families and our community, we hope to plan several on-going family activities. Below are a few ideas on activities we can do with our fellow Knights families as well as our Parish families and friends. All are welcome. Please look over these ideas and let us know your level of interest to participate. Please do not hesitate to suggest any activities you would like to see happen.

I've Learned.....

I've learned that no matter what happens, or how bad it seems today, life does go on, and it will be better tomorrow.

I've learned that you can tell a lot about a person by the way he/she handles these three things: a rainy day, lost luggage, and tangled Christmas tree lights.

I've learned that regardless of your relationship with your parents, you'll miss them when they're gone from your life.

I've learned that making a "living" is not the same thing as making a "life."

I've learned that life sometimes gives you a second chance.

I've learned that you shouldn't go through life with a catcher's mitt on both hands. You need to be able to throw something back.

I've learned that whenever I decide something with an open heart, I usually make the right decision.

I've learned that even when I have pains, I don't have to be one.

I've learned that every day you should reach out and touch someone. People love a warm hug, or just a friendly pat on the back.

I've learned that I still have a lot to learn.

I've learned that people will forget what you said, people will forget what you did, but people will never forget how you made them feel.

Clergy Appreciation Dinner

District 9 will be holding a clergy appreciation dinner on Friday, October 3 in Castle Rock. A catered prime-rib dinner will be served. More information will be available at the September council meeting.

Baptism Through The Eyes of a Child

After a hardy Oklahoma rainstorm filled all the pot-holes in the back alley, a young mother watched her two little boys playing in a water puddle.

The older of the two, a five year old lad, grabbed his sibling by the back of the head and shoved his face into the water hole. As the younger boy recovered and stood laughing and dripping, the mother ran to the back yard in a panic.

"Why on Earth did you do that to your little brother?" she inquired as she shook the older boy in anger. "We were just playing 'church', Mommy" he said. I was baptizing him like the preacher did in church last Sunday. I said "I now baptize you in the name of the father, the son, and in-the-hole-he-goes!"

Peaches Fundraiser

Thanks to all who helped out with the 2nd annual peaches fundraiser. We sold 280 cases - about 20% more than last year. Financial results will be announced at the September council meeting. Special thanks to all who helped, especially Ron and Deanne Gerber who directed the event and drove to Palisades to pick up the peaches, Dan Timmerman who coordinated the sales at St. Mark, and Chris Mosley who sold 35 cases to his coworkers!
