II. Chaplain's Reflection - Father Marek

- In this month's reflection, Father Marek discussion focused on three items of interest that he needs help from our council:
 - The parish is in the process of getting a second priest, Father Greg Bierbaum; one deacon, Deacon Tom; and possibly a second deacon. Father needs help in moving some things around downstairs, specifically the classroom, to make room for this future expansion of ordained ministers.
 - On May 25 there is a planned barbeque for the pre-school children, and some help and assistance is needed on the day.
 - Being election season, father reminded all that as members of the KOC we need to remain non-political in both our views and disposition. Personal involvement is fine, which includes voting, involving the KOC is not.

Lecturer Piece for the May 2016 Business Meeting

Being that May is Mary's month, the lecture piece given by Alan centered on the Blessed Virgin Mary. Over the centuries Mary has adopted a number of familiar names, "Mother of God," "Queen of Heaven and Earth," "Blessed Mother," "Queen of Peace," and the "Immaculate Conception," as conveyed by Mary to St. Bernadette. Additionally, St. Pope John Paul II had a special relationship with the Blessed Mother and believed that she actually interceded to save his life after suffering a gun-shot wound from a would-be assassin. Through her visitations, Mary has become a source of inspiration to many dedicated followers, by encouraging all of us to pray the rosary daily, and in doing so, asking her to intercede on our behalf. From the religious and spiritual perspective of doing God's will we all have a choice, and Mary is no exception. Because when the angel Gabriel appeared to Mary presenting God's plan, in the end Mary could have said no, yet she didn't. Instead her response is "Let it be done according to your will," there-by accepting the task given to her by God. By accepting God's invitation, Mary has become an outstanding role model for us all when faced with the choice of either accepting or rejecting "doing God's will," something that all should take to heart. Finally, one key take-away from the past visitations is that Mary, like her son Jesus, wants us to develop a relationship with her. One way to accomplish this maybe for us to commit to praying the rosary this month, and asking Mary to help show us the way to God's grace.
