As a case in point Father mentioned that the recent Ministry Fair generated over 300 new volunteers who signed up to support various ministries. Yet in order to continue to grow the Council various religious formation programs, he recommended getting our two Deacons more involved. Father once again thanked us all and then opened up the floor for questions. Questions were raised concerning the following: a storage unit/facility; expansion of Parish facilities (Great Hall, school area, etc.); and the status of the Parish pre-school, etc. Father acknowledged that these were good questions and said that there are plans in place concerning all of those areas, plus other initiatives, yet will take time, money, effort, and a total parish community commitment to see them through.

Haiti Pax Christi

September 15, 2023

To the Knights of Columbus Council 10937,

What an awesome surprise and honor to be presented with the Family of the Month certificated of recognition from the Knights of Columbus at the Fall Festival at Pax Christi.

God put us on this mission in Haiti of rebuilding Catholic Churches and supporting St. Joseph School over 20 years ago and it has only been successful due to the tremendous support of our Pax Christi parish community.

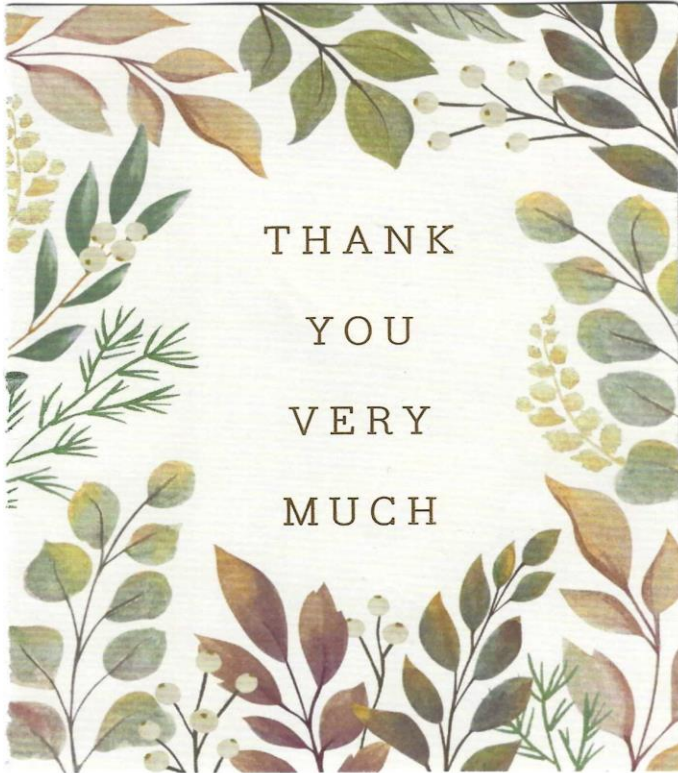

We want to thank you from the bottom of our hearts for this incredible honor. We will proudly display this beautiful certificate on the wall in our office!

May God bless you abundantly for all the good work you do that enhances our Pax Christi community in so many ways.

Love and Blessings,

Patrick and Kanna McGuire
