- Brennan Mendus and the 10937 Breakfast Burrito Brigade, Art's Burrito Wild Bunch, held another great event on February 27th after each Mass. It was a great crowd pleaser and added value to the Membership campaign. Especially good to see how many new Knights were on site to break eggs and build friendships. The activity netted about $500 dollars.
- Membership Director Joe Regnery for putting together a Membership recruitment event the weekend of February 26th and 27th. Additional thanks to District Deputy, Mike Burkett, plus Council members John Alfeld, Bernard Stancati, Ryan Fesker, Darren Lombardi, Brennan Mendus, and Joe Musso. As a result, the effort netted 9 new candidates, with a possible addition of two more, which in the end will help move the Council forward towards Star Council.
- All those who participated in the first Lent Friday Fish Taco event, it did very well. Special shoutout to Brennan and his gang of fish bandits who served over 100 tacos after Stations on Friday March 4th.
- Joe Musso and Brennan Mendus for serving up a well-received Reconciliation Dinner on Tuesday, 8 March, for the visiting Priests.

 - A continued reminder that our social and food events, such as Breakfast Burritos, Beer and Brats, Spaghetti Dinners, Christmas Party, are great places to 'crowd mingle' in order to recruit new prospective candidates. Yet the Membership Director cannot do this alone and, therefore, requires assistance from Brother Knights to mingle and work the crowd during these events.

XI. Advocate's Report – Jim Egan

- As part of unfinished business, Jim mentioned that the Council had a motion in need of resolution that was made by Paul Sciera back in December 2021.
 - This was designed to support Leonard Lebya's initiative to support Catholic Families in Lebanon.
 - The Council decided to table this initiative and go in a different direction, see new business. Nevertheless, the original motion needed to be dealt with.
 - Per Robert's Rules there were three options one of which was to have it withdrawn by the person who made it.
 - Another option was to just let it expire, which will happen at the April business meeting. And because Paul Sciera was not in attendance to withdraw the motion, Jim recommended that the best approach would be to just let it expire.

XII. Unfinished Business.

- The motion to support Leonard Lebya's initiative to help provide funds for Catholic families in need in Lebanon had been previously tabled in December. Based on discussions that occurred during the Advocate's report, it was decided that, based on Robert's Rules, to just let it lapse, see Advocate's Report.

XIII. New Business

- New Business: "Poker Night" – pending approval.
- The GK reported that the cost estimate for the Pax Storage Shed was in the range of 25K to 35K. Yet per Council Warden Steve Froseth, a member of the Parish Finance committee, he told the GK that this is already a budgeted item. Therefore, the Council would not be asked to foot the entire bill, yet could make a suggested contribution to the initiative on the order of 4 to 5K.
- The GK reported that the Council Leadership has decided to ask for individual voluntary contributions from the membership instead of using Council funds to support Leonard Lebya's Lebanon initiative. Leonard also mentioned that he and his wife would match these donations dollar for dollar, up to $500 dollars.

XVII. Good of the Order

- Lecturer's Reflection/The Rev Robert F. Houlihan S.J. Educator Series – Dave Petteys/Alan Brown.
 - Dave Petteys gave a short talk on spirituality as it relates to the Holy Spirit. The material presented is based on the work of Rev. Ron Rolheiser, OMI, who is a Roman Catholic priest and member of the Missionary Oblates of Mary Immaculate. Father Rolheiser is a theologian, professor, award-winning author, and serves as president of the Oblate School of Theology. In Christ's farewell speech to his disciples, Gospel of John, Jesus tells us that he is going away physically, yet will leave us a parting gift, the gift of his peace. And that we will experience this gift via an advocate, and in the spirit that Jesus plans on leaving behind.
